FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Raleigh, January 2, 2012 – Representative Bill Faison will hold a press conference Wednesday, January 4, 2012 at 11:00 am in the Press Room in the Legislative Building at 16 West Jones Street, Raleigh.

Rep. Faison will discuss economic conditions in North Carolina and the need for a continued focus on sound policies to address the unemployment rate, promote education and stimulate job growth and economic prosperity for North Carolina's working, middle class families.

Representative Faison represents NC House District 50, Northern Orange and Caswell Counties, and was first elected to the Legislature in 2005. Bill is a staunch supporter and advocate for jobs, education and health care. As a Single Dad, Bill knows how important it is to make good decisions now for results in the future. With three children in college and one in high school, Bill is focused on acting now to secure the future for all of our children.

As a legislator since 2005, he has championed rural high-speed internet access and in his role as Chairman of the House Democrats' Business Caucus, he has taken on the issue of rising unemployment in NC and is calling for a JOBS plan for the State, with a challenge to the GOP Leadership.
